STRANGE MARIMBA PLAYERS

With Robinson's Famous Show Which Exhibits Here Aug. 30.

Within the almost inaccessible wilds of Nicaragua dwells a strange race, undoubtedly the only remnant of the original people who inhabited America before the coming of the Red Indian. These people have an ancient civilization of their own, and to see them is to look at a picture of humanity as it was here perhaps five thousand years ago.

Agents of Robinson's Famous Shows penetrated to this isolated region, undoubtedly the only living white men who ever returned to tell their story. And they succeeded in bringing with them a band of native musicians, with their instruments. This is the bamboo Marimba, marvelously sweet in tone and played with great skill by these people. And the music which they produce proves that at some distant period these people had developed the art of music to a high degree. The airs, while very strange, show astonishing technique. The above is only one of the many novel features which distinguish the Robinson's Famous shows from the ordinary.

They will exhibit at Hopkinsville, Monday Aug. 30.

ACCUSED OF SHOOTING

INTO FARMER'S HOME.

Murray, Ky., Aug. 23.—T. M. Stoval, one of the best known and most influential business men of Mayfield, Ky., was arrested at Mayfield, Tuesday on a charge from Sheriff Patterson of this county, and was brought back on a charge entered by a Mr. Miller, of the western part of this county, of shooting into his home. Mr. Stoval was en route from Mayfield to Murray in his automobile, accompanied by his wife and relatives, and stopped near the Miller home to shoot some birds, not noticing the proximity of the home, and a few of the shot seem to have entered the house, to the great alarm of Mr. Miller. Mr. Stoval seemed to be greatly surprised at the action taken against him, declaring that he had meant no offense to any one. He was held to the November term of the Calloway circuit court in the sum of $500, which bond he quickly executed, and was soon on his way again to Cadiz to continue his automobile trip.

Stanley As Farmer.

Col. Will T. Robinson, of Boyle, was at the Backs' at Moreland, was greatly elated over the nomination of Hon. A. O. Stanley for Governor in the primary. Mr. Robinson said:

"I know Stanley well. I ought to. He worked for me on my farm several summers while attending college at Danville. His father was preaching there, and Stanley was going to school. He'd come out to my place and make one of the best hands I ever saw in the hay field. He could pitch up as much hay on a stack as any of the regular farm hands, and wasn't afraid of any kind of work. I'll bet right now, if you put him in a hay field, he'd be as much at home as he will be in the Governor's mansion at Frankfort."—Stanford Interior Journal.

Original "Annie Laurie."

"Annie Laurie," as written and sung by William Douglas, differed greatly from the version familiar today. It had only two verses, and the second ran:

She's backit like the peacock,
She's breistit like the swan,
She's jump around the middle,
Her waist ye weel nicht span,
Her waist ye weel nicht span,
An' she has a rolling 'ee.
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me down and die.

It was Lady John Scott who wrongly attributed the original to Allan Cunningham, who made the rough smooth in the existing verses, added a third and wrote the familiar tune "Annie Laurie," by the way, was a great favorite with our soldiers in the Crimea.—London Chronicle.
